

How to take part in the 2025 Hospices de Nuits-Saint-Georges auction?

Professionals and private individuals can take part in this auction. There are three ways you can place bids at the 2025 Hospices de Nuits-Saint-Georges which takes place on Sunday 9 March at 3pm

Take part in person at the château

The auction will take place at Château du Clos de Vougeot from 3pm on Sunday 16 March. To take part, it's imperative to register in advance (registration closes on Thursday 6 March 2025 at 23:59 (French time)). To sign up, please send an email to hdn@idealwine.com to provide a piece of identity, bank documents (IBAN), proof of address and a business registration such as a Kbis (the last document for professional buyers only).

Place a purchase request or place bids over the phone

For buyers that cannot be present in Burgundy themselves on the day, iDealwine can place bids on their behalf according to their instructions. Purchase requests and requests for telephone bids have to be made in writing before the auction through the form provided at the end of the catalogue and sent along with the required legal paperwork (piece of identity, bank documents (IBAN), proof of address and a business registration document such as a Kbis for professional buyers. The requests have to be sent by 23:59 (French time) on Thursday 6 March 2025 at the latest. The buyer needs to state if the purchase request is enough or whether they wish to be called during the auction.

Bid online on Drouot Live

The bidder needs to register in advance on the drouot.com website (create an account online before 23:59 (French time) on Thursday 6 March 2025) and contact iDealwine to validate participation. Please send an email to hdn@idealwine.com to provide a piece of identity, bank documents (IBAN), proof of address and a business registration such as a Kbis for professional buyers.

For all other questions, please consult the T&Cs or contact us directly via email or telephone: +33 1 56 05 86 10.

